POLICY

Animals on Campus

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure a healthy and safe environment for Zayed University students, faculty, staff, and visitors, and the protection of the university's property and assets whenever animals are brought on campus.

2. Scope of Application

This policy applies to all Zayed University faculty, staff, students, and campus visitors.

3. Policy

- 3.1 This policy ensures that any pets or service animals on campus are safe and do not render a threat to the ZU community and/or property.
- 3.2 Prior written approval must be given by the Campus Physical Development and Services Department before any animals are brought to a ZU campus or any activity sponsored by the university.
- 3.3 All legal and local regulatory requirements for the animals should be taken care of by the responsible people before bringing any animals on campus.
- 3.4 The licenses and appropriate documents for the animals must be verified before they are brought on campus.
- 3.5 The person responsible for an animal, while it is on campus, must be clarified in advance. The person responsible will be held liable for any emergency situation that arises due to the animal being on campus.
- 3.6 The person responsible for the animal will also be accountable for security, isolation, animal rights, protection, any remnants or waste of the animal and damage to university property/assets while it is on campus.
- 3.7 Advance notification must be given before bringing any breeds that have a history of dangerous behavior on campus, and appropriate arrangements should be made to protect the campus community.
- 3.8 Unaccompanied animals are not allowed on campus.
- 3.9 Violations may lead to disciplinary measures.
