POLICY

Internet Usage

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline the principles governing the general usage of Internet at Zayed University.

2. Scope of Application

This policy applies to all ZU employees, students, contracted personnel, and any third-party representatives who have been provided access to the ZU network.

3. Policy

3.1 ZU provides Internet access to employees to assist them in carrying out their duties relevant to their institutional responsibilities, to provide a better learning experience to the student community, and to enhance skills to enable faculty to deliver a superior level of education to their classes.

3.2 Users should only access the Internet by using the ZU IT Department (ITD) provided Internet Infrastructure on campus. Any other forms of Internet access via the ZU network are not allowed.

3.3 Users should only access the Internet after they have been authorized to do so by ITD i.e. after receiving network login credentials.

3.4 Any breach of ZU's Internet Access policies (refer to the related policies below) may lead to disciplinary action.

3.5 ITD will provide appropriate guidelines and manuals to implement this policy.
