POLICY

Academic Progress in the Baccalaureate Program

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the practices governing student progression through the baccalaureate program at Zayed University are conducted in a manner that is consistent with university standards, and with integrity, fairness, and consistency.

2. Application

This policy applies to all baccalaureate students at Zayed University.

3. Policy

- 3.1 In support of its mission and vision, the university shall establish and enforce standards of student academic performance to govern satisfactory progress toward degree completion.
- 3.2 At the end of each semester, a student's academic standing will be determined by the student's Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA). A student in the baccalaureate program is expected to maintain a good academic standing of a CGPA of 2.0.
- 3.3 A student's academic standing at the end of a semester will determine the student's eligibility to continue her/his progress towards earning a baccalaureate degree at Zayed University.
- 3.4 Students who have been conditionally admitted will be held to the same academic standards as all other students as well as having the responsibility to achieve the minimum English language proficiency requirement by the end of one academic year.
- 3.5 Any student who is not able to maintain a good academic standing at the end of a given semester will be given a warning and/or placed on probation to give her/him the opportunity to attain a CGPA of 2.0. If a student on probation is still unable to attain a CGPA of 2.0 within the stipulated time, the student will be dismissed from the university.
