POLICY

International Extracurricular Activities

1. Purpose

To ensure the clarity of the rules and regulations for international extracurricular activities, and that they are in compliance with accepted university standards of operation.

2. Application

This policy applies to all international extracurricular activities for students that have been authorized by the university.

3. Definitions

International Extracurricular Activities: a wide range of student development and educational activities abroad. Such trips include service-learning programs, club excursions, international non-credit bearing internships, conferences, and other activities that are not formally affiliated with a specific academic course or program.

4. Policy

4.1 The university promotes student development, leadership, and global awareness through seeking and supporting international extracurricular activities for students.

4.2 An undergraduate student who wishes to participate in an international extracurricular activity must meet the established criteria as described in the procedures.

5. Related Policies and Laws
