POLICY

Advanced Placement and Challenge Examinations

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the guiding principles that govern advanced placement and challenge examinations at Zayed University.

2. Scope of Application

This policy applies to all eligible undergraduate students at Zayed University.

3. Policy

The university shall establish, and disseminate information concerning, requirements governing the awarding of credit for advanced placement and shall implement procedures that effectively and efficiently achieve the end of enrolling qualified students in the university.

3.1 Awarding of Credit for Advanced Placement

The university shall award credit for courses taken in internationally recognized programs, such as the International Baccalaureate, Advanced Placement and passes in relevant A-level subjects, administered by an Examinations Board recognized by Zayed University.

3.2 Challenge Examination

With the college's written permission, a student may challenge placement in a course by taking a written examination covering the course's content. If the student is judged competent in the subject, the student will not receive credit in the course but may be placed in a higher-level section or course.
