POLICY

University Vision and Mission

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the guiding principles for the establishment and periodic review of Zayed University's vision and mission statements.

2. Application

This policy is applicable to all units within the university.

3. Policy

3.1 Vision

Zayed University will have a vision statement that expresses the long-term aspirations and objectives of the university.

3.2 Mission

Zayed University will have a mission statement that defines the university's values and goals, how it serves its students and the wider community, and describes the characteristics that distinguish Zayed University from other universities.

3.3 Review

The vision and mission statements must be reviewed periodically to evaluate their effectiveness in providing direction to the university and the development of its strategic plans. Reviews of the vision and mission statements must include feedback from relevant internal and external stakeholders.

3.4 Approval Authority

The authority for the final approval of the university's vision and mission statements rests with the University Council.

3.5 Dissemination

The approved vision and mission statements must be shared with all members of the university community and relevant stakeholders. The statements must be posted on the university website and included in appropriate publications.
